WaveMaker Award

Awarded to a woman who is making waves in her community, profession, etc. either through demonstration of an outstanding achievement, demonstration of entrepreneurial spirit and initiative or through leadership within their profession or the community. Please keep answers to 300 words or less.

1. How has the nominee made waves in her community and profession?
 - Jane continually elevates everyone around her to be the best they can be both personally and professionally. Her huge heart paired with her drive for success and giving makes her easy to nominate for this award. She has won numerous awards for work with her company, DoReMi Productions, but if you ask her what her big wins are, she would say the time, money, and knowledge she has been able to donate to local non-profits and individuals in Minneapolis. She has mentored several women who were starting their own businesses who now earn over $1 million in revenue, she was a major player in fundraising for Kids in Need Foundation to successfully build a new warehouse to provide teachers with free school supplies, and was recently featured on Kare 11 for her work on the Twin Cities music scene to help local artists gain traction on social media through video campaigns. When she isn't working or spending time with her family, you can find her volunteering somewhere in the city.

2. Please list the outstanding achievements the nominee received and the impact of the achievement (on the company, on colleagues, on the community, etc):
 - MSPBJ 40 under 40 Honoree (awarded to 40 recipients out of several hundred nominations)
 - Twin West Chamber Young Entrepreneur of the Year
 - SBA Minnesota winner of Women in Business Champion (awarded to an individual or business that furthers business opportunities for women)
 - Twin Cities Film Fest short film production winner for documentary on music production in the Twin Cities (featured several local artists)
3. Please list leadership/volunteer roles the nominee has been involved in – in both their community and profession.
 - Supplied free social media videos for two local nonprofits (Kids in Need Foundation and Cornerstone Women's Shelter) to raise awareness and fundraising visibility
 - Serves on the board for Kids in Need Foundation
 - Serves as a mentor for MCTC video and sound production students
 - Volunteers with Girls on the Run as a running coach
 - Volunteers with Women Venture as business coach
